

The spinning wheel was used to spin yarn and thread.

This early American coloring page shows a lady spinning fiber into thread. At Landis Valley Museum you can learn how early Pennsylvania Germans processed wool or flax into cloth to make clothing, bedding, and towels at our Textile Barn.